Funeral Services Held For L. A. Sanderson, Thursday

L. A. Sanderson, 77, passed away Sunday, Sept. 23, from injuries received when struck by a truck while crossing Main street in Aberdeen.

Luman Ashley Sanderson was born in Roxbury county, Wis., on May 14, 1868, son of Samuel Allen and Lavina Travis Sanderson. He was married October 22, 1891, to Etha Mae Crippen at Lodi, Wis. They farmed in Wisconsin until 1906, when they moved to Sioux Falls, S. D. In 1913, they moved to the Verdon vicinity and to Groton in 1918.

To this union were born six children. Mrs. Sanderson passed away in 1932. Floyd died in infancy and Chester in 1938.

He leaves to mourn his passing one sister, Mrs. Bert Fellows, Lodi, Wis., and four children: Ivan of Claremont; Earl of Crandall; Allen of Bath and Mrs. Richard Bahr of Groton. Twenty-one grandchildren and five great grandchildren also survive.

Pallbearers were six grandchildren: Lloyd, Robert, Harlow, Howard, Richard and Clayton Sanderson.

Honorary pallbearers were: A. T. Amsden, Thos. Berg, Guy Herron, Henry Washnok, Art. Huson and John Fredrickson.

The funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church on Thursday, Sept. 27, with Rev. L. C. Benson officiating.

Interment was made beside his wife in the Groton cemetery.

The death of this esteemed neighbor and friend came as a great shock to his family and friends. Mr. Sanderson was a quiet-spoken even-tempered man, whose friendship included all who knew him.
